Nomination Statement

Using only the space below, please explain to the Fellowship Board why this nominee should be considered for a Dissertation Completion Fellowship from the Graduate College. Keep in mind that the Fellowship Board is multidisciplinary and is likely to have no one who is an expert in the nominee's area of research. Board members will look to your statement for guidance on what counts for intellectual merit and academic achievement within your discipline, and they will use your assessment as a key resource in their attempt to compare this nominee with other nominees from across campus.

Tips: • Use concrete, quantified measures whenever possible to characterize the nominee's accomplishments and productivity.

- Clarify the stature within the field of any journals or conferences that have featured the nominee's work.
- Address any weaknesses in the nominee's record head-on.

This form must be merged with the other required materials into a single pdf and uploaded by the department to the Graduate College's online Box folder. See guidelines for details. If you have questions, contact the Fellowships Office at 217-333-0036 or GradFellowships@illinois.edu.
